Report on Spiritual Importance of Raksha Bandhan

10 August 2022

On the occasion of Rakshabandhan, Department of B.B.A.(C.A.) had conducted Guest lecture on "Spiritual Importance of Raksha Bandhan". The resource person was B.K. Vaishali from Prajapita Bramhakumari Center, Mandavgan Pharata. Students of B.B.A.(C.A.) faculty were present for this event.

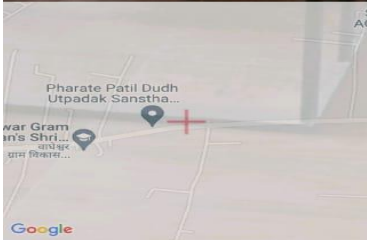

In her talk she explained Raksha means protection, and Bandhan means a bond. And thus, Raksha Bandhan is a celebration of that sacred bond between brother and sister. The same day is considered an auspicious day for spiritual practitioners, where priests, Gurus, and teachers tie amulets, charms, and sacred threads on the wrists of their patrons and students. As the tradition goes, teachers receive gifts from their spiritual students as a sign of respect and love. When it comes to a spiritual Raksha Bandhan, it symbolizes the pure and pious relationship with the soul. It's a celebration of the eternal relationship of the soul with the supreme soul. It's a promise, made to self, for being the protector of the good in us. It's a self-fulfilling promise for being positive, progressive, and open-minded for the things to come. Spiritual Rakhi is a celebration of your relationship with the Divine. Our soul is that subtle thread that ties us with the Divine, and unconditional love and self-knowledge strengthen this tie. In the unbreakable bond of love and devotion, when we link ourselves with the Divine, our soul experiences bliss and fulfillment.

From this lecture students got spiritual significance of Raksha bandhan and knowledge of Indian culture.
